Hi! How are you doing? I really appreciate that you're asking me for advice. I'll give you advice as well as I can. First, let's start with what interested you in summer camp? Maybe, you can do them without going on teenagers' summer camp. I deeply understand you. Neither my mom allow me to go somewhere far away from her. And I admit that ^{sometimes} I'm mad at her (sometimes) because of it. I won't go to summer camp, too. You may think why I asked you what interested you in camp. I asked this because I thought you could do the same activities in summer camp with your siblings, and with your friends as well as not ever all of your friends will be on summer camp. (Don't forget about me) Even though all of them will be there, don't forget about me. We can spend some time together this summer vacation. The second solution of your problem is making plans with your parents. By this, I mean you can tell your parents how you would like to spend your summer vacation. There are some examples. You can go to another city or countryside with your family. It might make your family know more about each member of your family. members know more about each other. Also, you'll be able to explore a new town. Next is making new habits, hobbies. I swear, it's might seem boring but it's really funny. Start going to the gym or learning to play in an ins music instruments. I suggest you to find new interesting and at the same time funny activities to do with your siblings. If I was in your place, I would make a big plan for the rest of the summer with my family. why not spend a good time with your family?

I understand that you want to experience an interesting vacation with your friends. If you can make your parents let you go there, then you should go. But if they don't allow you to go to summer camp, think about my suggestions. I wouldn't prefer upset my parents. I hope this helped you. Have a good summer vacation! If you want to ask for something else, don't hesitate.

See you later,

Zhuldyzai

The environment is Land, our Earth, air, water. Thanks to them we live. Unfortunately people don't understand this. That is why people litter the Earth, don't save the water and don't look at this issue seriously. After we see that Earth is dying die every day.

We can't stop this problem, but we can extend this. How? Every type of pollution is happening, because people litter our world. If we help people to workers to recycle, it will be good for everyone. Therefore we can't everyone say this everyone. That is why, I think, the government should help us. They should bring to our city bins to which each type of litter, for glass, for bread, for plastics. So they should do trainings for people, where people can understand about the necessary of recycling. Many people don't know about this. Also we want to do a project on the recycling in Kazakhstan.

In conclusion, I can say that every people's help can help for us, for Kazakhstan, for our Earth. One thing that you can do, is ~~answer for your~~ it's thing about your life and don't do bad things. Help to our project and to your life.

Although most people would like to live in a good environment but not all people understand the necessity of recycling. As we know people are getting to know more about our planet. The condition of the country is shows the people's behavior to the nature of that country. People don't understand the assignment. Our assignment, our purpose of living in the planet is to keep it safe and harmonious so I think the government should take strict measures to make people recycle. But, why? (we) I'm gonna explain the reason in my essay in a full version.

Nature is a face of (a) the country. The environment shows the behavior of people to the nature, but are they keeping it safe? That is the main question. In Kazakhstan we have a rich nature, that engages tourists to come here. We have a lot of buildings, myriad improved modern technologies, which we are proud of. But (b) everything has its pros and cons. The buildings that we have built, people's ordinary living are giving to (a) the nature leftovers. Leftovers have a huge impact to the environment. Some countries have a strict measure, when it comes to the nature for example Switzerland. Switzerland's ecology have impressed several countries and people. They use recycle. Recycling helps to save nature resources that can not be renew, or the resources that being existent. The point of saying it to this is to explaining the importance of recycling to nature, as to the country.

Yes, we have ~~abundant~~ resources, our country is rich of resources. But also we have resources that we can't not recycle, or resources that hard to recycle. But even if we have a lot of resources, the government don't really pay attention to the ecology, we don't have enough companies that recycle. ~~rest~~ leftovers, we don't get the nature education in the school. Because of this, the people in Kazakhstan will not understand the importance of nature. We have enough power to make a new recycle centre in Zhanatas, but we just do not do it and keeping destroying the planet. The nature of Kazakhstan, the attractions of Kazakhstan deserve to get more attention and care. We are being engaging tourists for several years and we must be engaging them for the next several years. We can recycle clothes, plastic, broken dishes and even food. We can recycle the old clothes to new ones and give them to the people, children with poor condition. With this we can save many resources. All we have to do is to make recycling centre and make people come and give their old things. That will have a positive influence to the nature and also to the children, families with poor condition. We have more advantages of recycling than disadvantages. But we have a serious problem here - plastic. We use plastic too much in the living. Plastic is the thing that can not be recycled. We use plastic bags to carry things, groceries. We use plastic bottles to drink and also other situations. The using of plastic is an enormous problem. We need to open eco store, and make people buy eco things, eco bags, wood bottles. Because of plastic the ocean got dirty, the several percent of ocean implies plastics. But some volunteers, companies are cleaning them. We need to learn from them. To sum up I am giving people advice of taking care of the planet. Saved ¹⁵⁰ the planet. God made people and nature harmoniously. That is the balance of life. So, please pay more attention to the planet! for the government, please take strict measures on recycling!
